"LEAK" INVESTIGATORS REOPENED HEARING THIS MORNING BANKER FISK DENIES FLATLY ANY DEAL WITH SECRETARY M'ADOO

SOME SENSATIONAL INSINUATIONS IN QUESTIONS ASKED

Many Are Answered
Flatly and Emphatically, While Others Are Catagorically Answered.

BANKER FIRST CALLED TO THE WITNESS STAND

By Associated Press Dispatch.
New York, January 29.—Pliny Fisk, a New York banker named by Thomas W. Lawson as the banker in the mysterious "cabinet-member-senator-banker" investment trio, denied at the "leak" inquiry today that he has ever been interested with Secretary McAdoo or a "senator" in any joint stock account.

FLAT DENIAL

By Associated Press Dispatch.
New York, January 29.—"Have you purchased, or caused to be purchased, in the last four years any securities in which Secretary McAdoo was interested?" Sherman L. Whipple, counsel for the investigating committee, asked.

"I have not, sir," Fisk replied with emphasis.

As one of the bankers for the Hudson & Manhattan terminals, of which McAdoo was president, Fisk said he came in contact with McAdoo, and Fisk & Son, of which Fisk was a member, also closed up some of the Secretary's business when he entered the cabinet; but since that time he has had virtually no business relations with him.

TALKED OF OFFICE FOR RESERVE BANK

By Associated Press Dispatch.
After denying that his firm had ever conferred with the Treasury Department, Fisk said that he had no advantage which any other Wall Street firm might not have received. Mr. Fisk admitted that the Federal Reserve Bank had leased of his firm a building owned by his firm, but he had suggested to Secretary McAdoo that the offices were "the most adapted of any in the street."

NEVER HAD ACCOUNT

By Associated Press Dispatch.
New York, January 29.—Among categorical denials made by Fisk were that he ever had a joint Wall Street account with McAdoo and "Senator O." that he had told Archibald White, or anyone else, that he controlled McAdoo and that he offered to call him out of bed at an early morning hour to answer the telephone call, and that he had received any advance information regarding President Wilson's recent peace note.

ONE KILLED IN TRACTION CAR CRASH

Cleveland Southwestern in Fatal Collision Near Wooster.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Cleveland, O., January 29.—One man was killed, one seriously injured and several slightly injured when an "extra" interurban car on the Cleveland Southwestern Line crashed into a work train four miles north of Wooster at noon today.

William Gauweiler, of Wooster, motorman, was killed, and Bert Boone, also of Wooster, another motorman, was seriously injured. The interurban carried no passengers.

M'LEAN WILL CASE UPHELD BY KINKEAD

The Probate Court of Franklin County is Upheld In Common Pleas.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Columbus, O., January 29.—Judge E. B. Kinkead in common pleas court today affirmed the Franklin county Probate Court in probating the will of the late John B. McLean, who died leaving valuable farm lands in Franklin, Fayette, Union and Licking counties.

The estate is estimated at $100,000. Another will has been offered for probate in Fayette County, and the Supreme Court has been asked to determine which court has jurisdiction over the estate.

The case in question was prosecuted on error, Gregg, Patton & Gregg of this city representing the McLean heirs, and they announce that they will appeal the case to the court of appeals.

The ground cited is that the last will and testament of John McLean, deceased, was probated in the Fayette county court, and the instrument probated in the Franklin county probate court was not the last will and testament of the deceased.

LUNCHEON ON ICE FEATURE OF PARTY GIVEN BY BROKAW, EXPERT SOCIETY SKATERS

BROKAW LUNCHEON ON THE ICE AT MILLNECK, L. I.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Brokaw, the society couple who are known in America and Europe for their skill in figure skating on the ice, had a large skating party at their place at Millneck, on Long Island. The ice was in perfect condition and the air was crisp enough to make the sport ideal for those who indulged in it. The guests were from various colonies on Long Island and from New York.

Music was furnished for the dancing and figure skating by a hurdy gurdy, which was played by Mr. Brokaw and all the guests, or most of them, in turn.

Although most of the guests had been skating since early morning, no one seemed willing to stop for the luncheon that was served on the bank of the lake, as is shown in the picture. Mr. Brokaw was seated in the center. Some of them took time enough to run in and have a bite or two. Even a snowstorm which blew up at the time did not lessen the ardor of the skaters, but seemed rather to increase the enthusiasm of all.

Mr. Bror Meyer of St. Moritz and Miss Emmy Bergfeldt gave exhibitions of fancy skating, and Mr. and Mrs. Brokaw did some clever figure skating. The little Misses Barbara and Minn Brokaw also enjoy the sport and are fast becoming as adept as their parents in the art of skating.

FIGHTING RAGES ON ALL LINES

Severity of Weather Fails to Produce Any Cessation in Warfare.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Despite the severity of the weather, reports from nearly all European battlefronts indicate that spirited fighting is taking place in several of the war areas.

The most notable recent developments are on the northern end of the Romanian line, where the Russians took the offensive on Saturday and broke through the Austro-German lines on a two mile front along the railway from Kimpolung to Jacobeni.

Efforts have been made by the Russians, after heavy artillery fire, to advance further in this region, but according to today's German official statement, the Russian forces were unable to make progress.

The Russians are also on the offensive in the Zlota Lipa region, and Galicia, where the campaign for Lemberg came to a pause some months ago.

Turkish troops apparently are the main defenders of the Central Powers' line in this region, and Berlin declares they have been successful in beating off the assaults made by strong masses of Russians.

Berlin reports persistent efforts by the French to recapture their lost positions at Hill 304, northwest of Verdun.

A surprise attack which failed was followed by three assaults after the regulation artillery preparation, but these are declared all to have broken down without any gain.

KILLS HIMSELF

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Toledo, O., January 29.—Carro Hills, aged 20, member of the senior class of Scott High School, shot himself in the temple today while other members of the family were at breakfast. Death was instantaneous. The coroner's verdict was suicide.

The Ohio Society of Washington arranged a reception tonight, with Secretary of War Baker and Associate Justice Clarke of the Supreme Court as guests of honor.

NEW MEMO ON ARMED VESSELS

May "Possibly" Be Issued Soon in Attempt to Clear Up the Controversy.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Washington, January 29.—A new memorandum to clear up the armed ship issue, both for belligerent governments and for American port officers, "possibly" may be issued, it was said at the State Department today, but care was taken not to indicate that such a document was in actual process of preparation.

In a guarded discussion of the whole delicate subject, officials declared that arming of vessels fore as well as aft does not necessarily convert them into war vessels.

The definite statement was made that the United States was interested not so much in the kind of armament as in its purpose.

PERSHING MOVING TO THE LINE

General Funston Notifies War Department That Expedition Is Withdrawing in Order.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Washington, January 29.—The War Department today was notified in dispatches from Major General Funston that the withdrawal of the American punitive expedition in Mexico was progressing satisfactorily, and that the last troops should cross the border next Monday.

A statement made public, said: "General Pershing's movement continues without incident and according to schedule. He will probably cross the border a week from today."

The text of the withdrawal order is withheld by the Department, but it is known that it contains specific directions for the conduct of the movement, including prescribed instructions to be followed in any contingency that may arise, and reached General Pershing early Sunday.

CANTON HONORS "M'KINLEY" DAY

Eulogies Pronounced in Public Schools and Elsewhere.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Canton, O., January 29.—In addition to wearing carnations today in recognition of McKinley Day, Cantonians heard McKinley eulogies in the public schools, before patriotic organizations and in memorial associations.

This city was for years the home of President McKinley. He was living in Canton when he became Governor of Ohio, and later when he was elected President of the United States. Dr. C. E. Manchester, who was a lifelong friend of McKinley and who delivered an oration at the McKinley funeral, spoke to the Ministerial Association this forenoon on lessons to be drawn from McKinley's life.

This afternoon he addressed members of the G. A. R., the Women's Relief Corps, the Spanish American War Veterans, and other patriotic organizations on the life of McKinley.

SUM OF $1680 WAS RAISED AND NEARLY 150 HIT TRAIL

Sunday Establishes New Record in Evangelistic Campaign— Scores Turned Away at Night Meeting When 100 Hit Trail— New Epoch in Meetings Great Encouragement to Those in Charge.

The tabernacle was the scene of three remarkable meetings Sunday, with Dr. Henry W. Bromley delivering a great sermon at each meeting.

At the morning service the entire expenses of the campaign, outside of the last day's collection for Dr. Bromley and party, were completely wiped out in about 20 minutes, when $1680 was raised and the evangelist had to request a stop to further giving.

In the afternoon virtually every seat was filled with men and boys and a half score or more of men hit the trail.

At the evening service a new record for the number of converts in a single evening was established when more than 100 persons, including a great many boys and young men, hit the trail in the presence of the greatest audience the tabernacle has witnessed.

Sunday's number of converts is estimated at fully 150, and Dr. Bromley and party feel encouraged by the great response in souls and the liberal response to the appeal for wiping out the expenses of the campaign.

It was a large audience which flocked to the tabernacle for the Sunday morning service, and few were aware that an effort was to be made to wipe out the deficit of $1595.

Dr. Bromley stated the proposition clearly to all and the exact amount needed to pay all expenses for tabernacle, heat, light, board of Bromley party, etc.

The work of raising the money was then launched in systematic manner and the first subscription announced was $100. This added enthusiasm to the movement, and 25 subscriptions came next. These came from all sides until between 25 and 30 persons or business firms had given $25 each. By this time, enthusiasm was at a high pitch and the remainder of the fund came quickly in $20, $15, $10, and $5, so that before the evangelist and list of tellers could get the totals summed up the amount had reached $1680 and it was necessary to call a halt before subscriptions under $5 were reached.

Wild applause burst from the audience time after time, and the big tabernacle shook with the final outburst of applause when the entire sum was announced and that the amount had really been overbooked.

A very interesting service followed the event, and Dr. Bromley delivered one of his best sermons.

In the afternoon hundreds of men and boys literally filled the tabernacle.

The Sunshine Chorus, composed of fully 225 boys and girls did the singing and their songs and flag drills made a deep impression upon the great audience of men. The boys and girls were well trained and their song service was one which all who heard will long remember.

"Hot Stuff in the Old Town" was the theme of Dr. Bromley's lecture to the men, and he spoke plainly and to the point saying in part:

"Solve the boy problem and you have solved one of the greatest problems of the universe.

"It's not as much the number in a family as the quality of the family that counts.

"Remember, one vice may lead to many of the others. Better cut that one vice out and do it right now. I believe more in putting the fence up at the edge of the precipice than to wait and take the man to the hospital.

pouch mail will be carried on B. & O. train No. 39, reaching this city at 9:33 a. m., and this is expected to bring a large amount of mail into the city which otherwise would not reach the city until 3:34 p. m., when the afternoon royal blue flyer reaches the city.

The train in question has not previously carried mail.

This announcement will receive general approval among Washington citizens generally.

Eastern and Chicago mail will be included in the mail coming by pouch.

UNION DELIVERY BUSINESS SELLS

Mr. O. T. Grafton, who established the Union Delivery system in this city and has successfully conducted the same for the past ten years, has disposed of the business to Mr. R. H. Brandt, an experienced union delivery man from Logan, Ohio, who assumed charge of the business Monday morning.

Mr. Brandt and his brothers have conducted the union delivery system in Logan for a number of years, and the new owner of the system in this city long ago learned that service was the one thing required of the union delivery and bent all of his energies toward giving that service, and expects to maintain the same high standard in this city as that of Mr. Grafton.

Mr. Grafton has not definitely announced his plans, but will go to the south in the near future and eventually expects to locate in the south.

At the present time seven wagons are required to handle the big delivery business of this city, and the entire equipment passes to the new owner, who is a young man of splendid ability.

ANNUAL INSTALLATION AN IMPORTANT EVENT

The annual installation of officers was the event of the month in W. R. C. circles.

Both G. A. R. posts had been invited, augmenting a full attendance of these patriotic women to a goodly number.

Mrs. O. S. Tobin filled the role of installing officer and Mrs. Sarah Solars acted as conductress. The following officers were installed with impressive ceremonies: Mrs. A. J. Thompson, President; Mrs. Jerome Dick, Senior Vice; Mrs. George Waters, Junior Vice; Mrs. Wm. Devaney, Treasurer; Miss Ruth Southers, Secretary; Mrs. Nancy Roberts, Chaplain; Mrs. Chas. F. Bonham, Conductress; Mrs. A. C. Patton, Assistant Conductress; Mrs. Will Hay, Guard; Mrs. B. F. Leland, Assistant Guard; Mrs. Nye Gregg, Musician; Color Bearers, Mrs. Callie Walton; Mrs. V. J. Hoggess, Mrs. Paul, Hildebrandt, Mrs. Chas. Briggs; Patriotic Instructor, Mrs. F. G. Carpenter; Press Correspondent, Mrs. G. D. Hays.

Mrs. Thompson, the incoming President, accepted her office with a very happy little talk, concluding it with a poem, "Old Grand Army Boys" which made a great hit with "The Boys."

Mrs. Carpenter made a delightful short address and several of the Comrades added words of congratulation and reminiscence.

An important feature of the session was the presentation of gold recognition pins to the outgoing President, Mrs. Martin Hamm, and Mrs. Jessa Blackmer president of the Executive Committee, who have served with great efficiency for two years. Great applause followed the presentation.

The Executive Committee served delicious refreshments and a most pleasurable social hour closed the installation.

When you reject the invitation to live right you are not merely rejecting the invitation, but rejecting Christ.

"There are some of you people in the Methodist, Presbyterian, Christian, Baptist, Episcopal and Catholic churches who have about as much religion as the heathen Chinese.

The trail was kept open for more than a half hour and in that time the repentant, usually by ones, twos and threes, went forward, many accompanied by the personal workers who had spoken to them.

It was the greatest meeting of the series, and many church members were included in the list of trail hitters.

Thrift Day Proclaimed

In accord with the national movement Governor Cox has issued a proclamation designating February 3rd as "Thrift Day" in Ohio.

On that day the people are to think of means to promote habits of thrift and economy for their own and their neighbors good in order that we may, individually and collectively form the habit of conserving of our plenty to guard against the coming of times less prosperous.

Well that's all right. It's fine to be thrifty and economical and no matter how prosperous an individual or a nation is it does not justify wastefulness.

We are having a great many "days on which" we are to do this, that and the other in this country now. In fact we are having so many right now and so many more are being urged that some times the fear that we may find ourselves in the same condition as the patriotic Mexicans who have so many holidays and fete days that they are compelled to sit up nights to observe them all.

There are so many good movements launched with the purpose of bettering the conditions of the people, morally and materially, each of them really deserving of a special day of observance to emphasize the idea, that it's difficult to "turn down" any of the enthusiasts who ask for just one day.

However we believe in thrift and we hope it will be observed and the lesson impressed on the prosperous people of America.

Human Relic of the Past

Small Woman an old Indian squaw was burned to death in her shack at Lucky Mound near Fargo North Dakota a few days ago.

Small Woman was past 80 years old and had escaped in safety from the burning shack but returned to rescue from the flames an old shawl about which, no doubt, cluster memories of the past. Her clothing caught fire while she was inside the shack and alone out in the great open country the end came.

Small Woman was one of the widows of Sitting Bull than whom there was never a more picturesque and unconquerable old red skin in the history of the nation. It was Sitting Bull who planned and executed the villainous massacre of the Custer forces on the Little Big Horn in 1876, which resulted in the annihilation of the whole command of United States cavalry including the gallant Custer.

The long pursuit and final capture of Sitting Bull who was killed by his pursuers at the battle of Wounded Knee fifteen years later is known to almost every American who has followed the history of the development of the great west.

The tragic end of Small Woman removes possibly the last human being who links vividly those stirring days of the past with the comparatively quiet present throughout the great west.

It would be interesting to know what memories attached to the old shawl which Small Woman sought to save from the flames. Perhaps it was the sole possession remaining to her—the one thing acquired in those days of savage grandeur and prosperity when Sitting Bull reigned supreme over the great expanses of the Dakota country.

The Cincinnati Indictments

The federal grand jury in session at Cincinnati has returned ninety-nine indictments charging violation of the election laws of the United States.

The offenses are alleged to have been committed, according to general understanding, in Cincinnati during the last general election campaign.

Comment upon the merits of the particular cases would be improper and unjust to the accused at this time.

The action of the grand jury, however, did not come as very much of a surprise. It has been known for some time that an investigation by the grand jury was underway and that people, generally have believed, whether correctly or not, no one knows, that Cincinnati's political affairs were dominated by high handed methods.

Whether those methods have been such as constitute a violation of the United States laws in the matter which is now to be tried out in court, at least in the particular cases in which indictments have been returned.

United States District Attorney Stewart R. Bolin publicly stated, prior to the election, that the laws were being violated in Cincinnati and that a sincere attempt would be made to bring the guilty ones to justice.

Mr. Bolin is to be congratulated in making his promise good. If he didn't believe the laws were being violated in Cincinnati he should not have made his pre-election statements. If he did believe the law was being violated he was warranted in making the statements attributed to him and, having done so, it was his duty to make his promise of an investigation good.

Cincinnati needs a political shaking up—needs it badly. Possibly the knowledge that the conduct of elections hereafter, brought home to the political bosses in Cincinnati in the way Mr. Bolin has brought it home to them, is going to be watched, will result in bringing better political condition to the city.

Poetry For Today

ACROSS THE RIVER.

The River's looking stormy-wide, and frownin' is the sky.
But on the other side's "the Land where our possessions lie."
And we seem to hear the singin', like an echo from the Blue;
"On the other side of Jordan there is Rest for you!"

We lay aside our sorrow—the sorrow of the years.
The shadows hiding heaven—the life-long rain of tears;
At last, the journey's ended, the Land of Love's in view;
"On the other side of Jordan there is rest for you."

The rest that's for the weary, who count earth's gain as loss;
To whom its darkness is as light that sanctifies a cross;
The travelers of Heaven's highway in paths the Master knew,—
"On the other side of Jordan there is rest for you."

The old-time music ringin' in the sweet, old-fashioned way,
Till we hear a sweeter singin' than has ever blest Life's day;
The notes that give the comfort when the way seems dim and long
And you may not glimpse Life's lilies where the thorns, so wounding, throng.

Joy in that music's echo and everlasting Peace,
The River's waves subsiding—the solemn thunders cease;
And so we bear the burden, with that higher hope in view;
"On the other side of Jordan there is rest for you."

GERARD IS GIVEN THE REPLY

Claim Warning Was Given Crew of Tratrack and She Was Sunk as Hostile.

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Berlin, wireless to Sayville, L. I., January 29.—The German government today handed to United States Ambassador Gerard its answer in the case of the British steamer Tratrack, says an Overseas News Agency announcement.

The reply is as follows:
"The steamer was stopped by a German submarine on November 16 last. The crew left upon signal and sailed away from the steamer in the boat. The ship was then searched and sunk as a hostile vessel."

The foregoing evidently refers to the British steamer Tratrack, reported sunk in a Lloyd's Shipping Agency announcement on November 27 last. The Tratrack was a vessel of 2,098 tons gross, built in 1912 and owned in St. Ives.

ASSEMBLY BEGINS A BUSY WEEK

Senator Lloyd Introduces Bill to Provide Coliseum for Dairy Show.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Columbus, O., January 29.—In order to insure the 1917 national dairy show being held in Ohio, Senator Lloyd, of Franklin county, will ask the legislature to pass as an emergency measure this week the bill to provide for the erection by the State of a coliseum at the state fair grounds in Columbus to house the show.

Lloyd will endeavor to have his bill pass the Senate under suspension of the rules tonight.

In advance of the meeting of the House and Senate, scheduled for 5 o'clock this evening, the Labor and Agricultural Committees of the House were in session this afternoon.

Minority members of the House Committee were expected to oppose the Bragg agricultural bill, reorganizing the State Agricultural Board.

The labor Committee expects to report out favorably initiated bill No. 1, providing for elimination of private liability insurance companies from competition with the state fund, after tonight's meeting.

Advocates of an open season for quail in 1917 as well as those who believe quail should be placed in the song bird class and given protection at all times, will flood members of the legislature with petitions and propaganda this week. The league of Ohio Sportsmen is taking the lead in advocacy of a short open season on quail this year and is circulating petitions signed by those who believe in hunting quail while members of the American Audubon society, including hundreds of children, are petitioning the legislature to place Bob White in the song bird class.

Governor Cox also is getting a good share of the propaganda at his office and is being urged to use his influence both ways on the subject. In a letter to the governor Harry T. Bann, Portsmouth attorney, outlined a bill providing for a short season of eight days for quail hunting in 1917 which he has placed in the hands of Senator W. D. Tremper and Representative Sprague of Scioto county for introduction in the assembly this week.

The bill provides that it shall be lawful to shoot quail, ruffed grouse, Virginia partridge, woodcock or Carolina dove on Mondays, Thursdays and Saturdays from November 15 to December 3, inclusive, and pheasants during the same period after 1920. The reason for hunting on alternative days is explained, is to prevent camping parties from being formed to hunt every day, to let coveys obtain food and rest and prevent them from being kept in a state of constant alarm. The use of repeating, automatic or other magazine shot gun is prohibited in hunting quail or squirrels. Hunters are limited to 12 quail in one day and fifty in one season and they must be shot on the wing, under the provisions of the proposed bill.

The Ohio Manufacturers Association as well as labor organizations will be represented at the hearing late today before the committee on labor on the initiated bill to exclude private liability insurance companies from competition with the state workmen's compensation act.

W. H. Stackhouse of Springfield, a leading manufacturer, has prepared an argument in advocacy of the amendment which is expected to be submitted to the manufacturers to get their sentiment on the bill. Mr. Stackhouse points out that the state fund has saved employers $3,300,000 by insuring with the state rather than with private companies. In states where private companies operate, he says employers are facing an increase in rates. He urges the state to provide certificates of compliance with the law and says the degree of safeguards required should be accurately defined. Mr. Stackhouse says the passage of the bill "is inevitable" and suggests that "it would be exceedingly shortsighted for employer to oppose the proposed amendment."

Another proposed change in the workmen's compensation law is under consideration. It is that the supreme court be given authority to review directly on error proceedings, the decisions of the state industrial commission. Representatives of labor, it is said, object to this on the grounds that it deprives them of the right of jury trial, but may be willing to compromise by having a provision in the law that the trial before a jury is to be upon the same evidence as that upon the hearing before the commission. The industrial commission has the question under consideration.

While the special taxation committee is working on an emergency tax bill to take the place of the Parrett-Whittemore tax law held unconstitutional by the supreme court, the committee on cities in the Senate has an equally difficult task in trying to work out a bill that will give relief to debt-burdened cities and school districts of the state.

The Senate committee on cities will take up plans for financial relief for municipalities tomorrow morning. Two plans are outlined in the bill introduced by Senator Terrell of Cleveland. One is to remove from the ten mill limitation of the Smith one per cent tax law all interest and sinking fund charges, while the other plan in the bill gives taxing districts the right to levy a special tax upon vote of the people for a five year period in order to pay its old indebtedness, leaving the ten mills for operating purposes.

The alternative plans were prepared by Stewart L. Tatum of Springfield chairman of the taxation committee of the Ohio Municipal League. The bill of Senator Galbreath of Columbiana county to permit special taxes to be levied by popular vote, only to pay off indebtedness incurred prior to 1917, a plan advocated in the Republican state platform, is also before the cities committee for consideration. Legislative committees of the Ohio Good Roads Federation, County Commissioners association and allied organizations are behind a bill to amend the Cass road law passed by the last legislature, correcting alleged defects found in the law. The bill probably will be introduced in the general assembly this week.

The Good Roads Federation is preparing for a vigorous campaign for better roads this year and to stimulate interest in the subject has under consideration the calling of a conference of various societies and organizations interested. The increasing of the state levy for highway purposes from three-tenths of a mill to one-half mill also is under consideration.

Chicago Concerns Turn In With Big Liability Lists.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

Chicago, January 29. — A petition in bankruptcy and for a receiver against Von Frantzius & Company, a big stock brokerage house of Chicago, was filed today by creditors, who allege that liabilities of the concern were about $2,750,000 and the assets about $1,000,000 less than that.

NO INTENTIONAL ATTEMPT MADE TO WRECK TRAIN
(Associated Press Cable)
Madrid, Spain, January 29. via Paris —A man arrested for the alleged attempt to wreck King Alfonso's train has been identified as Rafael Dura Floriot, a deserter from a regiment stationed at Malaga.

According to some reports the bars of lead found on the track had fallen or were stolen from a freight train returning from the mines at Linares, and their presence in the path of the royal train was purely accidental.

SUPT. O. S. NELSON IS RE-EMPLOYED AT $2000 YEARLY

County Board of Education Also Transfers Pisgah School District to New Holland—Meeting Called to Consider Centralization Plans of Union and Marion Townships.

At a meeting of the County Board of Education, held at County Superintendent O. S. Nelson's office in the court house, Saturday night, Superintendent Nelson was re-employed for a period of three years at a salary of $2,000 per year; the Pisgah school district in Marion township was transferred to New Holland school district, and the centralization of three districts in Eastern Union township with three districts in western Marion township—about all that is left of Marion township, was discussed at length, and a meeting called for Saturday morning at ten o'clock when the Marion township and Union township boards will meet with the county board for further discussion of the matter.

OLIVER S. NELSON
County Superintendent of Schools.

The matter of transferring the Pisgah district to New Holland was first considered as result of a petition from 19 persons living in the district. About two hours of informal discussion resulted before definite action was taken, a part of the two hours being devoted to real discussion of the subject. Messrs. Geo. Kirk, Scott Taylor and J. N. Timmons, of the New Holland Board of Education were present.

On the question of increasing the salary of Superintendent Nelson and employing him for a period of three years from August 1, 1917, the vote was three to two. On the question of transferring the territory to New Holland, the vote was unanimous.

Minnick presented the resolution to employ Superintendent Nelson for three years at $2,000 per year, or $200 per year more than paid during the past two years.

Superintendent Nelson called attention of the board to statistics showing that in Ohio only six counties (all in southern Ohio) pay less than $1800 for a county superintendent; seven are paying $1800; 26 are paying $2,000 and the remainder in excess of $2,000 per year. Wilson and Long protested against the increase and three year employment.

Application was made to transfer the Swartz land to Bloomingburg school district, but no action was taken.

On the question of centralizing parts of East Union and West Marion townships, a thing which has been proposed by petition of voters but the petitions not yet filed with the County Board, a hearing was set for Saturday morning. The three districts in Union which it is proposed to combine with three districts in Marion and build a grade centralized school building, are Oak Grove and Stewart schools.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES IN KANSAS

Older residents of this city will learn with regret of the death of W. P. Cleveland, an active business man of Washington in earlier years and an uncle of Mrs. J. T. Tuttle, Miss Bess and Mr. Ned Cleveland. For many years the deceased was in business with his only brother, the late J. W. Cleveland, the firm known as J. W. and W. P. Cleveland druggists located where the C. A. Gosard and Company, jewelers are now doing business.

Concerning the death of Mr. Cleveland on the 19th of January the Wichita paper says:

William Pitt Cleveland, one of the very well known citizens of Wichita for more than thirty years, died suddenly at his home at 213 South poplar street shortly before 6 o'clock this morning from heart failure. He was in his office in the Schweiter Building yesterday all day and attended to business as usual. It is said, however, that his health has been declining for nearly a year, but that on account of his pleasant and jovial disposition his friends had not noticed it. A Native of Vermont.

Mr. Cleveland was born at Brookfield, Vt., on June 28, 1838, and hence was seventy-nine years of age. He descended from that same English stock that came to New England with the Mayflower and retained until the day of his death many of the fine sturdy traits of his ancestry.

"When he was twenty-one he moved west and was in Ohio when Abraham Lincoln called for men to save the Union. He was one of the first to respond and served three years in the hardest fought campaigns of the Civil War with the First Ohio Cavalry.

"In 1886 he came to Wichita. In the early nineties he was with his brother-in-law, Judge W. T. Buckner, in the office of the Probate Court and was very popular.

Good Judge of Poetry

Mr. Cleveland had fine literary taste. He was widely read and had quite a genius for original investigation. He was a chemist of some note and experimented a good deal in the field of microscopic bacteriology. He was a fine judge of poetry, art and music and when one could not recall the author of some literary work, or could not get the information in the library, he was appealed to. Many likened his humor to that of Oliver Wendell Holmes. He was gifted with a fine philosophy of life and was, altogether, one of the most agreeable citizens. His death will be mourned by a wide circle of friends.

His Widow Survives

"Mr. Cleveland is survived by a widow and two sisters—Misses Cynthia and Carrie Cleveland, of 813 North St., Francis.

Some of the men have been questioned by the authorities have denied that they had a part in the alleged game, while others are said to have virtually admitted their part in the proceedings.

STATE AUDITOR EXPLAINS REPORT ANSWERS CRITICS

Auditor of State A. V. Donahey has addressed the following letter to The Washington Herald, which we are glad to publish:

"Editor,
"Washington C. H. Herald,
"Washington C. H., Ohio.
"My Dear Sir:

"I have read your editorial 'Recreating the Junk Pile.' There is a lot of truth in the article, but you possibly are not aware of a few facts that I happen to have full knowledge of.

"For instance, when I took over the Auditor of State's office in 1913, I found that for forty years the annual reports of this department required by the Constitution and laws of Ohio had been published in the same form and style during that entire period, and consisted of about one thousand pages of limitless detail in which the people of Ohio refused to be interested. The reports were not published until many months after the close of the fiscal year because of its volume. I cut this report from 1000 pages to 240 pages, greatly reducing the cost, thus filing a report that has even attracted the attention of Collier's Weekly and Saturday Evening Post.

"Likewise, Ohio Comparative Statistics, such as you speak of in your editorial, are required by statute to be prepared annually. I found when I assumed the duties of this office in 1913 that it was the custom of the department to publish in one volume county statistics, city statistics and school statistics. The last volume published by the department, in 1913, was of 252 pages, and contained comparative statistics of cities alone. This year I have boiled this report down to 212 pages, and it covers cities, counties and school districts all in one volume. I have gotten away from the usual jumble of detail and have prepared graphic illustrations and other comparative statistics that I believe will be interesting to those who might desire a copy. If I do say it myself, I have worked hard in this office trying to improve conditions that I found, and when I see a newspaper making statements that are far from the facts, I feel it my duty to write and advise them of the true situation, as I feel that no newspaper of the standing of yours would willfully misrepresent the facts.

"I do not ask you to make any other statement in your newspaper, concerning this matter. I simply feel that you stand for clean things and should know the facts.

"Yours very truly,
"A. V. DONAHEY.

We have no desire to do any injustice to Mr. Donahey either officially or personally and want our readers to have his full statement.

The present Auditor of State has done a great many good things. We have always said as much. His intentions are the best and his ability and his inclination to carry his good intentions into execution have been a source of pleasure to the people of Ohio.

We still insist, however, that less talk about what he has done and is doing would preserve the popularity which he has justly won.

No doubt there is abundant authority to be found in the law for the publication of the widely advertised report. That's the trouble, it affords an opportunity for egotistical officials

Europe's War Now Drafts Alaska Dogs Into Its Service

ALASKA DOGS NOW "SOMEWHERE IN FRANCE"

Europe's war dragnet, cast to all corners of the earth for material wherewith to wage the gigantic struggle, has gathered in the famous Alaska sled dog for winter work. These animals are found very useful to parade before the public with no real benefit to the people.

Mr. Donahey has, with success, advocated many changes in the laws with a view to curtailing expenses and that's what he should have done, in our humble opinion, with reference to the wholesale publication and distribution of a voluminous report. He has not been content to accept other conditions as they existed—

Our criticism was not intended to create the impression that Mr. Donahey was all wrong by any means. He is not. He is a good official. But we get tired of being told so by his department and we thought and still think he should have complied graciously and complacently with the public report law calling attention to its fallacies rather than with alacrity availing himself of the opportunity to advertise himself. —ED.

MEMOIR

Mary Aitken Weaver was born near Glasgow, Scotland, July 22, 1838, departed this life in Washington, C. H. O., January 19, 1917, being aged 78 years, 5 months and 27 days.

She was the eldest in a family of seven children born to Wm. and Jean Aitken. There survive one sister and three brothers—viz. Mrs. Jane Rhoads, John and Wm. Aitken, all of Hillsboro, Ohio, and Robert Aitken of Promise City, Iowa.

When thirteen years of age she with her parents and her sister and brothers, came to America, settling near Hillsboro, Ohio. There on March 8th, 1859, she was joined in marriage with Jas. F. Weaver, and for over sixty years they travelled life's pathway together. To gladden this home there came eight children, one dying in infancy. There remain to mourn the loss of this dearly loved mother, Wm. S. of Sabina, Ohio, Mary J., wife of J. N. Wilett, of Centerville, Iowa, Edwin, George, Frank, Lizzie, and Kate, wife of Fred Clemens all of this county. There also remain twelve grand-children and eight great-grand-children.

In the spring of 1882, Mr. and Mrs. Weaver, with their family removed to Fayette Co., residing in the vicinity of Jasper Mills. The husband and father died August 3rd, 1915, and about a year ago the aged widow removed to the home on Clinton Avenue this city.

abiding faith in the goodness of God. Although this loved one, who has gone from our midst, often remarked that she wished no eulogy pronounced in her obituary we can not refrain from saying that her children call her blessed and her friends and neighbors testify to her influence for good upon their lives.

TO RUN-DOWN WOMEN

Detroit Woman Tells How To Regain Strength.

Detroit, Mich. "I was in such a run-down condition I had no ambition to do anything. I had a chronic cough and cold and nothing seemed to give me any relief, and I was gradually getting worse, until a friend advised me to try Vinol, which I did. After the first day or two it seemed to put new life into me, the tired worn-out feeling began to disappear, I regained my appetite and was able to get a good night's rest. The cough gradually wore away, and I am now feeling like myself again, so that I can do all my housework and go about my duties as usual. Vinol is certainly a wonderful medicine." Mrs. W. E. Waters, Detroit, Mich.

Vinol restores health, and strength in conditions like this, because in a natural manner it increases the appetite, tones up the digestive organs, enriches the blood and strengthens every organ in the body.

We guarantee that Vinol will do the same for any run-down person in Washington Court House, or give back their money.

CAPITAL AND LABOR UNITE ON PROBLEM, COMING AFTER WAR

(Associated Press Cable)
London, January 29.—Labor and capital have joined hands to work out a scheme for reinstating in civil employment after the war the men now employed in the field or in munitions factories. The number of persons now on government payrolls who will be discharged after peace is declared is from 6,000 to 8,000, seven-eighths of whom are men. This represents nearly half the wage-earning population of the United Kingdom.

Demobilization may extend over several years. The process will probably begin with the munition workers, many of whom are liable to discharge at short notice. Army disbandment must proceed slowly, and, unless normal conditions are speeded up, will be very gradual.

The employers decided to combine with labor in working out this industrial reform scheme after the labor men through the Joint Labor Committee on Labor Problems After the War had formulated a list of concessions for the men. This committee is representative of all the big labor organizations in the country.

The committee urged that the government should make workers in munitions and other war trades the same kind of provision as has been already promised for the discharged soldiers, including: A month's leave on full pay, free railway ticket to any place in the United Kingdom, unemployment benefit available for a year, and organized facilities for obtaining fresh employment.

This action led to the meeting of leading employers and heads of the big trade unions. It was realized that if the task of getting men back to their old places after the war was left to the labor exchange a collapse was threatened and trouble sure to follow. The meeting, therefore, resolved that it was necessary to create a special organization consisting mainly of representatives of employers and trade unions. Its action is taken seriously not only because the meeting was presided over by Frederick Huth Jackson, one of the governors of the Bank of England, but because of the representative character of both employer and employee.

AMERICAN DOLLAR IS AT A DISCOUNT

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Mexico City, January 29.—Mexico is one place where the American dollar is at a discount. This discount ranges from 19 to 40 per cent, according to locality. This has been caused by the scarcity of Mexican gold and silver coins and the fact that certain taxes and rents and the wages of employees must now, according to decree, be paid in Mexican coin.

"Hidalgo" or Mexican gold ten peso coins in Mexico City now sell for $5.50 and in some of the remote states the price has reached as high as $7.50, while they used to sell for $4.90.
